Rear-Admiral Jennifer Bennett, OMM, CD
Chief of Reserves and Cadets

Rear-Admiral Bennett enrolled in the Naval Reserve Summer Student Training Programme in 1975 and commenced training as a Naval Communicator. In 1977, Rear-Admiral Bennett transferred to the Naval Reserve Officer Cadet Programme for training as a Logistics Officer and was commissioned as a Sub-Lieutenant in August 1979. Since that time, she has served in a variety of training, staff , leadership and command positions across Canada while also working as a teacher and administrator at elementary and secondary schools in Ontario and British Columbia. Most recently, she was Head of School at Fern Hill School in Oakville.

Rear-Admiral Bennett holds a Bachelor of Physical Education from McMaster University, a Bachelor of Education from Queen's University and a Master of Arts in Leadership and Training from Royal Roads University. She is also a graduate of the Canadian Forces Staff School, Canadian Forces Staff College, NATO School and NATO Defence College.

Rear-Admiral Bennett commanded HMCS MALAHAT, the Naval Reserve unit in Victoria, BC and the Naval Reserve Recruit School in Borden, ON.

Promoted to Captain(Navy) in 2000, Rear-Admiral Bennett was appointed the Director of Reserves in National Defence Headquarters. Other national level appointments in National Defence Headquarters include Director Professional Development, Director of Training and Education Policy and Project Director (Military) for the Defence Learning Network.

Rear-Admiral Bennett was promoted to Commodore on December 1st, 2007, upon appointment as the Commander of Canada's Naval Reserve, leading over 4000 Naval Reservists serving across Canada in 24 Naval Reserve Divisions, Naval Reserve Headquarters, Fleet School Quebec, 12 Maritime Coastal Defence Vessels, Port Security Units and Port Inspection Dive Teams, and Headquarters in Quebec City, Victoria, Halifax and Ottawa.

Promoted to her current rank in April 2011, Rear-Admiral Bennett was appointed as Canada's Chief of Reserves and Cadets. As an advisor to the Chief of Defence Staff and champion for Reservists across the Canadian Forces, Rear-Admiral Bennett holds the most senior Reserve appointment in the Canadian Forces. She is also responsible to the Minister of National Defence for delivering and supporting the two DND sponsored youth programmes.

Surgeon Captain Gordon P. Fahrni, DSC, MD
Award

Cadet CPO1 Francine Chartier
John Travers Cornwell, VC, RCSCC

CPO1 Francine Chartier has been a cadet for seven years and is the Corps Coxswain, the most senior position providing assistance and direction to junior cadets. She won the Navy League of Canada Excellence Medal in 2011 and has participated in a cadet exchange program in Montreal, Quebec. She has been playing soccer since she was seven, has played for her school, has recently progressed to the Winnipeg Women's Soccer League. She is a first year student at Universitaire de Saint-Boniface where she is studying for a Bachelor of Science degree. Her objective is to become a forensic scientist within the RCMP Laboratory system.

Lieutenant Laurence Gillmor Sherman
Award

Cadet WO Hillary Lecocq
2701 PPCLI Cadet Corps

WO Hillary Lecocq played a major role in the supervision and training of new and junior cadets ensuring they received the skills and knowledge required to progress within cadets. She has participated in several adventure training programs offered through cadets, and has also completed the Red and Silver Star requirements, and was selected as the Best Silver Star Cadet. She is also the lead drummer in the unit drumline. She volunteers at a senior's residence, which gives her an opportunity to communicate with them in French. She has been accepted at the University of Manitoba where she will study for a Bachelor of Nursing degree.

17 Wing Winnipeg Honorary Colonel
Award

Cadet F/Sgt Daniel Kang
176 Boeing of Canada Squadron, RCACS

Cadet F/Sgt Kang has demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities within his unit, where he instructed junior cadets in subjects such as leadership, citizenship, aviation and establishing goals and vision. He has served the Korean Church of Winnipeg as a drummer, bassist, and singer and occasionally as musical director. He has a Poom (equivalent to a black belt) in Tae Kwon Do and has competed in track and field within his school. He has been accepted in the faculties of arts and commerce at McGill University in Montreal, Quebec. His long term career objective is to study international law and work for the United Nations.

Note: Cadet F/Sgt Daniel Kang has moved to Montreal to study at McGill University and will be unable to attend the 2012 Awards Dinner.
