Reception

Brigadier-General P.J. Bury, OMM, CD

Commander National Cadets and Junior Canadian Rangers Support Group

After spending five years with Army Cadets in Edmonton, Alberta, BGen Bury enrolled as a subaltern with The Loyal Edmonton Regiment (4 PPCLI) in 1988 where he held a variety of command and staff positions. During the fall of 1999, BGen Bury was deployed to the Headquarters Multi-National Division (South West) in Banja Luka, Bosnia Herzegovina, where he held the position of G3 Plans and Training. In March of 2001, BGen Bury was selected as Officer Commanding the Composite Reserve Infantry Company that deployed as Delta Coy, 1 PPCLI BG for Operations GRIZZLY and PALLADIUM Rotation XI.

BGen Bury assumed command of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment in June of 2003. During August of that year, BGen Bury was tasked as Commanding Officer of Task Force IV for Op PEREGRINE, responsible for the military assistance to British Columbia provincial fire authorities in the area of Okanagan Falls, British Columbia. In February 2008, BGen Bury deployed to Afghanistan where he worked within the Directorate of Afghan National Army Training and Equipment Support in ISAF HQ, Kabul. On 5 June 2010, BGen Bury assumed command of 41 Canadian Brigade Group. BGen Bury was promoted to his current rank on appointment as Deputy Commander of Land Force Western Area/Joint Task Force West on 1 March 2011. He was appointed to his current position as Director General Reserves and Cadets effective 12 August 2013.

BGen Bury holds a Masters Degree in criminal justice from Boston University. He is a graduate of the Joint Reserve Command and Staff Program and the Advanced Military Studies Program, both taught through the Canadian Forces College in Toronto Ontario. During his career, he has been awarded the General Campaign Star (ISAF), Canadian Forces Decoration, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Medal with the "Former Yugoslavia" bar (2), the Canadian Peacekeeping Service Medal, the Alberta Centennial Medal and the Order of Military Merit.

Award

Cadet CPO1 Zachary Raymond Berry
350 Transcona, RCSCC

Cadet CPO1 Berry graduated with honours from St. Boniface Diocesan High School in June 2015. He will attend the University of Manitoba Faculty of Science where he will major in Genetics. He aspires to become a genetic counselor.

As a cadet he attended Basic Sports and Fitness, Basic Seamanship, Ship's Operator and Boatswain's Mate training courses. His community volunteer activities include work with the Autism Society of Manitoba, Special Olympics, the Winnipeg Police Service and the Royal Canadian Legion. His major volunteer experience was with the United Way of Winnipeg where he served on the Youth Leadership Committee for three years.

Within his cadet unit, CPO1 Berry has used his leadership skills as the Divisional Petty Officer of the band, Chief of Training and Coxswain.

He has been active in school intramurals and holds the school record for the fastest 500 metre rowing.

The Manitoba Navy League Division
Award

Cadet CPO2 Siobhan Evison,
25 Crusader, RCSCC

Cadet CPO2 Siobhan Evison graduated from Vincent Massey High School and will attend the University of Manitoba in September 2015 for a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Biological Sciences. She also plans to participate in the University's band program.

She has attended several cadet camps including: General Training; Intermediate and Advanced Pipes and Drums; and Staff Cadet Pipes and Drums. She has been a member of the Cadet Honour Band for four years. She has regularly participated in Remembrance Day Services for high schools and Legion Branches.

Her other volunteer work includes Kiwanis International Key Club that helps to serve children of the world.

Siobhan has held several leadership positions within the band and enjoys supervising new cadets.

She is currently working toward the Silver Duke of Edinburgh Award.

The Lieutenant Laurence Gillmor Sherman
Award

Cadet WO Nathalie Jaclyn Grace Castagner
2701 Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, RCACC

Cadet WO Castagner is a graduate of College Sturgeon Heights Collegiate. She will commence her post secondary studies at the University of Manitoba where she will work toward a degree in Bio-Chemistry. Her longer-term objective is to be admitted to the School of Dentistry.

She has attended Basic Training, Basic Expedition, and Leadership and Challenge courses at summer cadets. During the summer of 2015 she was selected to attend Maple Leaf Exchange in the United Kingdom. She is a Master Cadet.

She volunteers at Siloam Mission and has participated in several services of remembrance.

She is the Drum Sergeant-Major in the unit drum line. She has earned the Bronze and Silver Duke of Edinburgh Awards.

The Honorary Colonels' Army Cadet Scholarship
Award

Cadet CWO David Wall,
2295 Royal Winnipeg Rifles, RCACC

Cadet CWO Wall graduated from Daniel McIntyre Collegiate Institute in June 2015. He is currently a first year student at the University of Manitoba. He has not made a decision about his major, but he is considering one of the sciences, which were his strengths in high school.

He has attended Rocky Mountain National Army Cadet Summer Training Camp. He has also participated in cadet training in the United Kingdom. Two of the highlights of his cadet training are the nine-day dog sledding trip in Ontario's Algonquin Park and the biathlon.

He has volunteered with the local Legion Branch in Timmons, Ontario when he lived in that community. His school required a minimum of forty hours of volunteering as part of their program. He had completed sixty hours before he finished grade nine.

He enjoys supervising junior cadets and acknowledges that it took some time to become acquainted with the different styles of leadership required in a larger unit.

He has participated in biathlon, orienteering, hockey and football and won the A.R. Romanow Award for Athletics.

The Janice and Barry Rempel
Honorary Colonels' Air Cadet Scholarship
Award

Cadet WO1 Matthew Jonathon Major,
82 Brandon, RCACS

Cadet WO1 Major enjoys mathematics and physics, and that led to his interest in aerospace engineering. He will attend Brandon University for his undergraduate degree after which he will pursue graduate studies at the University of Minneapolis.

He has completed Drill and Ceremonial Instructor training at Penhold, AB and was the flag party commander for his unit's 2014 Annual Ceremonial Review.

His volunteer experience includes functions with the Rotary Club, Hazardous Waste Disposal and Remembrance Day Services. He also tutors other students who require support with mathematics.

WO1 Major has a black belt in karate and is currently instructing in the art. He enjoys playing other sports such as volleyball, basketball and badminton.

The Flight Sergeant Fred Marean
Award

Cadet FSgt Courtney Masson, 6 Jim Whitecross, RCACS

Cadet FSgt Masson initially plans to study nursing at the University of Manitoba. After graduation she plans to work in that field for a few years before applying to study medicine.

She has enjoyed being a cadet and has been involved in the music program and has also gained experience at summer camps and instructing. She has completed both the Intermediate and Advanced Musician training courses. She was selected to be a member of the Cadet Honour Band and received the Top Band Cadet for two consecutive years.

She has completed the Bronze and Silver levels of the Duke of Edinburgh Award and is currently working toward the Gold level.

She has been a neighbourhood canvasser for the Heart and Stroke Foundation and volunteered with the Ste Rose Fire Department pancake breakfast, Remembrance Day Services, Lion's Club annual dinner plus a few others.

She is the Drum Major for her unit, and that gave her the opportunity to lead and teach the band twice a week.

She is currently taking Taekwondo training and expects to achieve a black belt level.

The
Lieutenant-Colonel (Ret'd) James R. Popplow,
SBSStJ, CD, BSc, BEd, MD, MSc, ABPM (AM), FACPM
Award

Cadet FSgt Amber Donnelly,
82 Brandon, RCACS

FSgt Donnelly will attend the University of British Columbia to study in the applied sciences. Beginning in her second year, she will pursue an Engineering Physics major with a minor in Physics.

She plays the trumpet in the unit band and has participated in effective speaking. Her summer training courses include: General Training; Basic Survival, Advanced Aerospace; and Glider Pilot. At the time of her application she anticipated that she would have an opportunity training to qualify for a private pilot's license.

She has helped her unit by volunteering during tag days and book sales for the Rotary Club. She volunteers some weekends with the Brandon Gliding Centre. For the past four years, she has been a volunteer with Brandon Jazz Festival where her duties have included ticket sales, cleaning, setting-up and tearing-down the venues.

As a FSgt, she regularly leads junior cadets and encourages them to work as a team.

She plays rugby for her school team but has also played basketball, volleyball and badminton.
